

Falling Hair

Ayer's Hair Vigor promptly destroys the germs that cause falling hair. It nourishes the hair-bulbs, restores them to health. The hair stops falling out, grows more rapidly.

Does not Color the Hair

We wish you to positively and distinctly understand that Ayer's Hair Vigor does not affect the color of the hair, even to the slightest degree. Persons with the whitest or the lightest and most delicate blond hair may use it freely without having the hair made a shade darker.

Ingredients: Sulphur, Glycerin, Quinin, Sodium Chloride, Capsicum, Sage, Alcohol, Water, Perfume.

Peacham.Death of Mrs. Sarah A. Jennison—Town and Personal Notes.

Mrs. Sarah A. Jennison died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Wilbur Watson Friday morning, October 14, of acute bronchitis. She had been ill since September 1, when she had a nurse two weeks. After that time she was able to be around the house some but Sunday, October 9, she took to her bed again during which time until her death she was tenderly cared for by her daughter, Mrs. Watson and family. Two other daughters were present when she died, Mrs. Lucinda Chamberlain and Mrs. Mattie Graves of St. Johnsbury. Mrs. Jennison has one brother living, Mark Gillilan of Barnet, who was present at the funeral, and two sisters who were unable to come, Mrs. Nettie Peabody of Munroe, N. H., and Mrs. Elizabeth Scott of Lawrence, Mass. Sarah A. Gillilan was the daughter of Moses and Hannah (Kent) Gillilan, and was born in Boston, November 8, 1830. Her home was in Barnet until her marriage to John Jennison, when she moved to Peacham where the rest of her life has been passed, living on the home place until about three years ago when she went to live with her daughter, Mrs. Watson. She has been a widow about 40 years. Of the eleven children born, nine are now living. The funeral was held Sunday at the home of Wilbur Watson. Rev. E. H. Bartlett preached the funeral service and Dr. A. J. Mackay and Harlan A. Renfrew sang. There was a profusion of beautiful flowers. The burial was in the family lot at Peacham cemetery.

The box supper by the teacher and scholars at Green Bay school Thursday evening was well attended and the program was well carried out. The proceeds were $3.50.

Milton Blanchard of San Francisco arrived at Mrs. F. E. Palmer's Saturday.

A dinner was given at the Methodist parsonage Thursday in honor of the pastor, Rev. E. H. Bartlett, and his bride.

John Chandler has been quite sick with grip and rheumatism.

The entertainment and sale by the teachers and scholars of the Ewell's Hollow school on Monday evening was a decided success. About 170 people were present, including a large load of 20 people from West Danville. The program of speaking, singing, dialogue and instrumental music was exceptionally fine. At the close of the entertainment the remaining articles were sold at auction and appropriate remarks were made by Union Superintendent Harvey Burbank. The proceeds were $13.24, which completes paying for the organ and leaves a balance of $7.26 in the school treasury.

Opening of Woolworth's

The Woolworth store was opened to the public on Friday afternoon and evening for inspection only. Hodge's orchestra played both times and a crowd was in attendance every minute. Soon after nine o'clock the doors were closed that things might be made ready for trade next morning. There were 49 clerks who were busy all day Saturday and until a late hour that evening. The managers from the stores at Burlington, Barre, Montpelier, and St. Albans, were present and a corps of workers from the Boston office. The management was quite satisfied with the crowd which numbered fully 3000. Three police were in attendance all day, but, although there was plenty of excitement, especially in the early morning, there was no disturbance.

Capt. Bogardus Again Hits the Bull's Eye.

This world famous rifle shot, who holds the champion record of 100 pigeons in 100 consecutive shots, is living at Lincoln, Ill. Recently interviewed, he says:—"I suffered a long time with kidney and bladder trouble and used several well known kidney medicines, all of which gave me no relief until I started taking Foley Kidney Pills. Before I used Foley Kidney Pills I had severe backaches and pains in my kidneys with suppression and a cloudy voiding. On arising in the morning I would get dull headaches. Now I have taken three bottles of Foley Kidney Pills and feel 100 per cent better. I am never bothered with my kidneys or bladder and again feel like my own self." C. C. Bingham.

HAD A JOLLY TIME.The Bingville Dance for Hospital Benefit a Success.

Such a crowd of country folk, gathered from all farms and rural districts, as met at Bertrand's hall on last week Tuesday evening to enjoy the Bingville dance, has rarely been seen in St. Johnsbury.

There were fully 400 on hand and not for a minute did the fun let up. The hall was decorated in harvest fashion, quantities of corn stalks and a jack o' lantern in every window with a large one bearing the word "Bingville" on the piano. The costumes worn by Madam Brock and her orchestra were among the best and they aroused no end of merriment when they marched around the hall.

The prettiest thing on the program for the evening was the dancing of a contra dance by twelve little boys and girls, under the direction of Mrs. Elmore Brock. The children participating were Paul Farnham, Wesley Steele, Norman Braley, Howard Fisk, Clinton Cary and Carlyle Sargent, and Misses Lesley Cady, Helen Ross, Helen Steele, Alice Gilman, Cecel Annis and Madeline Cary. The boys wore overalls and the girls pinafores and sunbonnets. Miss Helen Sylvester also entertained with a song and dance in Dutch costume. The grand march was led by Dr. H. G. Bullard and Mrs. H. B. Howe.

The night dance with all the jack o' lanterns lighted, was a feature of the evening, as was also the serving of refreshments, red apples.

Mrs. Harry M. Cross and Mrs. Harland B. Howe arranged the dance and deserve all the credit for its success. The proceeds, which amounted to about $90, will be applied on the fund for an elevator for Brightbrook hospital which these two ladies are attempting to raise.

RYEGATE.

Meeting of Ladies' Missionary Society—Locals.

The Ladies' Missionary society met with Mrs. J. A. McKirahan at the parsonage on Thursday. The meeting was one of unusual interest, being the time for the annual thank offering. Mrs. William Nelson was the leader. She introduced the subject for discussion by reading a statement sent out by Charles R. Weston, secretary of the foreign mission board, setting forth the needs in the fields occupied by the United Presbyterian church. This was followed by a paper by Mrs. W. J. Hawk of Barnet Center on the past and present missionary progress in the United Presbyterian church. This, with a short talk on organizations by Mrs. J. A. McKirahan. Another on the reasons for more funds to carry on the work in the foreign field. This quiet impressive talk was listened to with marked attention. Mrs. Fred White read a selection from the Woman's Missionary Magazine. The whole trend of the program was an inspiration to take a forward step in the support of missions. Those in attendance from other congregations were Rev. and Mrs. W. J. Hawk of Barnet Center, Miss Edith Bone of South Ryegate, Mrs. Harry Smith, Mrs. Charles Wallace, Mrs. George Wallace, Mrs. Lackey and a friend of Mrs. Charles Wallace from St. Johnsbury.
